Followed by Heart Disease, Cured by
DR. MILES' HEART CURE.

M. R. C. SHULTS, of Winterset, Iowa, writes of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. "Two years ago an attack of LaGrippe left me with a weak heart. I had run down in flesh to mere skin and bone. I could not sleep lying down for smothering spells; frequent sharp darting pains and palpitation caused a constant fear of sudden death, nothing could induce me to remain away from home over night. My local physician prescribed Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and in a few days I was able to sleep well and the pains gradually lessened, and finally ceased. I reduced the dose, having gained fifteen pounds, and am now feeling better in every way than I have for years."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nervous system free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.

THE BUBONIC PLAGUE

Surgeon General Wyman Has Received No Information on the Subject.

CONFIDENT NO DANGER

Of the Plague Gaining a Foothold in Hawaiian Islands—Dr. Carmichael In Quarantine—Insular Commission's Report on Trusts, Combinations and Tariff in Porto Rico.

Washington, June 27.—Surgeon General Wyman when shown the dispatch telling of the arrival at Honolulu of a vessel on which the bubonic plague had made its appearance, said the Marine hospital bureau had received no information on the subject. This he thought was due to the fact that Dr. Carmichael of the Marine hospital service, who investigated the case, had gone into quarantine and was therefore unable to communicate with Washington. General Wyman was confident that there was no danger of the plague gaining a foothold in the Hawaiian Islands, as the Marine hospital service, together with the other health authorities, would by proper precautionary measures prevent suspicious cases from landing. The plague has never appeared in the islands and, he thought, never will. If the Nippon Maru is destined for San Francisco, the health officials will take steps to make it absolutely certain that the disease will not have an opportunity to reach the shore.

INSULAR COMMISSION

No Excuse For Enforcing Tariff Laws in Porto Rico.

Washington, June 27.—The insular commission has begun the distribution of its full report, a part of which has already been made public. The commission makes the following reference to the subject of trusts and combinations in the island:

"By the recommendations already suggested, the national law forbidding certain trusts and combinations in matters of interstate trade will be in force in the island as elsewhere; but, in addition, we shall suggest a law forbidding and punishing the formation and operation of such concerns in the island in accordance with the laws of states, with perhaps some additional features not yet embodied in any statute, in our endeavors to keep these evils from fettering the business of the island of Porto Rico in its infancy."

On the question to tariff reform to relieve Porto Rico from the burden of tariff discrimination, the commission takes the ground that since the cession of the island to this country has been recognized there is no longer any excuse for regarding it as foreign territory and the president, as the commander-in-chief of the army, is at liberty to formulate special customs legislation pending the final action of congress.

Captain Barker Coming Home.
Washington, June 27.—A cablegram received at the navy department yesterday from Admiral Watson brought the information that Captain A. S. Barker, who was in command of the fleet at Manila between the time of the departure of Admiral Dewey and the arrival of Admiral Watson, had left for home. The message stated that he sailed on Friday last on the regular mail steamer. Lieutenant Eberle also sailed for home at the same time.

Cableship Hooker at Manila.
Washington, June 27.—The cableship Hooker has arrived at Manila, loaded with cable and telegraph supplies for the signal corps. Chief Signal Officer Greely has been notified that in all probability the Eighteenth company of the signal corps will return from Manila on the return trip of the Zealandia. This probably will be about July 20.

Sailing of the Valencia Delayed.
Washington, June 27.—The sailing of the transport Valencia from San Francisco for Manila will be delayed some days to await the arrival of recruits for the Twenty-fourth infantry, which will sail on her for the Philippines.

CHARGED THE GUARD

Removed That Cubans at Nuevitas Retake Guns They Surrendered.
Havana, June 27.—It is persistently rumored here that there has been serious trouble at Nuevitas in connection with the payment of the Cuban troops. The story is that the Cubans, after receiving payment, charged the guard and recovered the arms they had surrendered.

In American official circles the report is discredited. The authorities have full confidence in Colonel Moale, who is in charge of the payment there, and are satisfied that it is proceeding without collision.

German and Chinese Troops Fight.
London, June 27.—The Daily Mail publishes a dispatch from Shanghai saying that the German troops who were sent to punish the Chinese for a recent attack on the railway near Kiau Chon, met with armed resistance near Tiumi. A fight ensued and the Chinese lost 10 men. The Germans captured Tiumi and then advanced on Kan Mai, which surrendered without fighting.

Independent Telephone.
Chicago, June 27.—Representatives of independent telephone companies in Michigan, Illinois, Ohio and Indiana are in session here with a view to consolidating the scattered exchanges of those states and getting a Chicago connection for the combine.

PAYNE OF WISCONSIN
Movement to Make Him Chairman of Republican National Committee.
Chicago, June 27.—A special to The Record from Milwaukee says: A prominent Republican of this city, who is a close friend of Henry C. Payne, is authority for the statement that that astute political manager has been asked to take the chairmanship of the Republican national committee, succeeding Mark Hanna also as chairman of the executive committee. Senator Hanna is not a member of the national committee while Mr. Payne both represents Wisconsin in that body and is vice chairman of the executive committee.

So far has the matter gone that, if Mr. Payne can secure the consent of his physician to take up the heavy work of the national chairmanship, it is understood that he will permit himself to be persuaded, and will be installed as Senator Hanna's successor in the management of Republican politics late next fall, or when the national committee is called together in December to prepare for the work of the presidential campaign of 1900.

Senator Burrows Talks.
Painesville, O., June 27.—Senator Burrows of Michigan is visiting here. In an interview yesterday he declared that his colleague, Senator McMillan, would be a candidate to succeed himself and would be re-elected next year. Concerning Secretary Alger's alliance with Governor Pingree, Senator Burrows said he thought the secretary had destroyed what chance might have had to go to the senate by making such an alliance.

Chairman Jones Heard From.
St. Louis, June 27.—Ex-Governor William J. Stone has received a letter from Senator Jones of Arkansas, chairman of the Democratic national committee, dated at London, in which the senator gives his most hearty approval to the July meeting of the national committee. Senator Jones says that his health has improved wonderfully, and that he expects to return home about Sept. 1.

LEXINGTON
Wants the Louisville Convention to Adjourn and Meet in That City.
Lexington, Ky., June 27.—The inability of the Democrats to make any nomination at Louisville caused Democrats of this section to unite yesterday in a strong petition to Rhea, Bronston, James and other leaders of the anti-Goebel forces to make a fight to ignore Chairman Redwine, elect another chairman and adjourn the convention to Lexington, by uniting the Stone-Hardin forces. It is urged that no settlement can be made in Louisville, and unless something is done the party may suffer defeat in November.

Louisville Convention.
Louisville, June 27.—After a day of turmoil and warring the Democratic convention succeeded in taking two ballots for governor. The first one resulted: Goebel 352½, Stone 261½, Hardin 67. The second was as follows: Goebel 320½, Stone 275, Hardin 89. The Hardin and Stone men had been instructed not to vote. The convention then adjourned until today.

SENATOR FAIRBANKS
And Party Arrive at Sitka and Are Given a Reception.
Seattle, Wash., June 27.—The steamship Cottage City, which arrived from Alaska yesterday reports that the Edward H. Harriman scientific party left Sitka June 21 for the Aleutian peninsula. They will stop at different points enroute and may run through Bering Sea as far as St. Michael. To Miss Mary Harriman fell the honor of having killed the first deer.

Senator Fairbanks and party arrived at Sitka enroute to Lynn canal June 20. The party was given a reception at Sitka by the citizens and government officials.

NEW FRENCH CABINET

Premier Waldeck-Rousseau's
Statement Approved by the Chamber of Deputies.

AN INDESCRIBABLE SCENE

Immediately Follows the Announcement of the Vote, Which Was 263 to 237—Riot at Saragossa, Spain, Over the Budget Proposed by the Government—Martial Law Declared.

Paris, June 27.—At the opening of the chamber of deputies yesterday the extreme leftists shouted "Viva la commune," and the socialists frequently interrupted the proceedings, but M. Waldeck-Rousseau's statement was much applauded by the leftists and centrists.

After the premier Waldeck-Rousseau made his statement as to the intentions of the new ministry, in which he asked the chamber for the widest mandate, M. Jules Perillier moved the order of the day as follows: "The chamber approving of the declarations and acts of the government, passes to the order of the day." The motion was adopted by a vote of 263 to 237. An indescribable scene immediately followed. The senate adopted the government's declaration by a vote of 187 to 25.

Ernest Roche, Socialist, interpellated the government regarding the policy and composition of the ministry. He declared it was a government of war and violently attacked the minister of war, General de Gallifet. Other speakers followed in a similar vein and the orders of the day were moved, only two of them approving the ministerial statement.

M. Waldeck-Rousseau replied to the various interpellations, explaining the motives animating the formation of a cabinet of somewhat divergent views; one of the main objects being to reunite all Republicans. He added that the ministers had already assumed some responsibility, but he thought the backing of the chamber was necessary for further steps, and asked what ministry could for a moment tolerate acts seeming to create the belief that the army desired to constitute itself the judge of its policy. He further expressed the hope that it would not be necessary to take more severe measures, and said he thought it easy to demonstrate whence came the attacks upon the courts.

Explaining the inclusion of General de Gallifet in the cabinet as minister of war, he said it was because no other general had so spontaneously supported the constitution and it was thought the necessary punishment of certain military men could be somewhat relaxed if emanating from such a trusted authority as General de Gallifet.

In conclusion the premier said: "Our task is heavy. Whatever course the chamber may pursue I have done all my duty."

The speech of M. Waldeck-Rousseau was much interrupted. The noise at times was deafening and several members were called to order.

RIOTS IN SPAIN

Demonstration Against Budgetary Proposals of the Government.

Saragossa, Spain, June 27.—A violent demonstration against the budgetary proposal of the Spanish government took place here yesterday. The mob pillaged the building of the Saragossa council general and stoned the gendarmes on guard, several of whom were severely injured.

The disorders increasing the troops were ordered out and charged the rioters.

Martial law was then proclaimed, the prefect of police handing over the reins of power to the military authorities.

SILVELA'S STATEMENT.

Madrid, June 27.—In the chamber of deputies yesterday the premier, Senor Silvela, replying to a question of Senor Romero y Roldano as to the disturbances in various parts of the country, said that those at Seville and Madrid were not important, but the disorders at Saragossa were serious. The government, he declared, was fully determined to punish severely any outbreaks against law and order, and, if necessary, the whole peninsula would be declared in a state of siege. Senor Silvela, while passing along the street, was the object of slight manifestations of a hostile character.

MOSES FOWLER CHASE

Motion Filed at Cincinnati to Set Aside Court's Decree of June 5.

Cincinnati, June 27.—It transpired yesterday that more than a week ago, Fred H. Chase, the father of Moses Fowler Chase, through his attorneys in Cincinnati, filed a motion in the Hamilton county probate court to set aside and reverse the decree of that court of June 5, whereby young Chase was pronounced of sound mind. There was an effort by the attorneys for the father, for some reason, to keep the filing of this motion secret, which was successful until yesterday.

Shot by His Brother.

New Albany, Ind., June 27.—William Mergell was shot last night and seriously wounded by his brother Frank. Mergell went to his home in an intoxicated condition and began abusing his family. He assaulted Frank, who shot him in the side. No arrest has been made. Frank was a member of Company C, One Hundred and Fifty-ninth Indiana volunteers.

The army surgeons think they have the fever under control. The sanitary department is working day and night and the city has literally been flooded with disinfectants and the entire garrison in camp is under rigorous quarantine.

Antiforeign Disturbances.

London, June 27.—The Hong-Kong correspondent of The Daily Mail telegraphs as follows: Antiforeign disturbances have just occurred in Meng-Tsu, province of Yun-Nan, where the residences of the customs staff and the French consulate have been burned by an armed mob. The foreigners effected their escape.

SPANISH MINISTER

Objected to Chihuahua (Mex.) Band Attending Rough Riders' Reunion.

Las Vegas, N. M., June 27.—One of the most interesting and unique features of the reunion was a reception tendered to Governor Roosevelt at the Hotel Castaneda, by the Mexican people of the territory just before his departure. The most influential and leading people waited upon the noted New Yorker.

Felix Martinez of this city made the address of welcome during the course of which he made a rather sensational statement to the effect that he had been informed that the Spanish minister at the City of Mexico privately, but seriously objected to the visit of the Chihuahua band to Las Vegas. The objection was based on the assumption that the act of permitting the band to visit this country and assist in celebrating a victory over Spain could not at least be considered a friendly attitude toward the vanquished nation. The Spanish minister waited upon President Diaz in an informal way and stated his objections. President Diaz was not of the opinion, however, and allowed the band to come to Las Vegas.

PROPERTY AT SEA

United States Delegation at The Hague Will Insist on Its Protection.

The Hague, June 27.—The Frederick Holls, secretary of the American delegation to the peace conference, referring in conversation with a reporter to the proposals of the United States for the protection of private property at sea, with exception of contraband of war in time of war from capture or seizure, said: "We have strong grounds for making the propositions. The president understood the Russian invitation comprised the question of private property at sea and has instructed us to raise the question. We will push the matter energetically, insisting that the conference is competent and that if its competence is doubtful a liberal interpretation was necessary."

We believe that if the proposals are rejected they will be referred to another conference. Anyhow they will have been most useful, as the attitude of each power will be defined. The state department has sent us a very strong pamphlet containing resolutions passed by many cities of the United States which has been handed to each delegate.

BRIGANDS IN ITALY

In Five Months They Have Committed 980 Crimes in Sardinia Alone.

Rome, June 27.—For some time Signor Benedetto Leonardo, the well known Italian millionaire has been considering the advisability of selling his estates near Salerno and settling in Rome, owing to the repeated attempts of a local band of brigands to capture him. He has now finally made up his mind to that course, for during last week the brigands captured him. They fixed the ransom moderately under the circumstances at $0,000 lire, and required that the money be paid on Wednesday under pain of slicing the captive's ears off. The ultimatum had only an hour within which to expire when the money arrived, and Leonardo considers it too close a shave to incur the risk of a repetition.

During the first five months of this year brigands committed in Sardinia 980 crimes of violence, and in Sicily 719. During the same period these ruffians in the two islands captured 61 persons, murdered in cold blood all but four, and dangerously wounded 128.

Looking After the Marines.

Havana, June 27.—General Ludlow, governor of the department of Havana, has recommended the removal of the marines from their present quarters at the wharf, believing the locality to be unhealthy. But he does not believe their removal to the navyyard would improve matters. He considers the worst part of the city is that adjoining the old Spanish military hospital, and favors the marines being kept aloof. The general would have the navyyard turned over to the city for use of destitute Cubans, who, being immune, would not suffer like Americans.

MRS. DODGE'S JEWELS

$100,000 Worth of Jewelry Seized at New York.

New York, June 27.—Examination of a quantity of jewelry taken from Mrs. Phyllis E. Dodge of this city, a passenger on the steamer St. Paul, shows that it is worth $100,000, the value of a single necklace being $50,000. The duty on the jewelry seized would have been $10,000. The contents of Mrs. Dodge's trunk alone are worth $10,000. This seizure of jewelry is the largest ever made at this port.

The Old Adage Exemplified.

St. Louis, June 27.—The old adage that love laughs at locksmiths and objecting parents was exemplified again yesterday by J. Sheppard Cabanne, a son of one of the leading families of St. Louis, and Miss Minnie Leonard of Eldridgeville, Ky. After making two unsuccessful attempts to elope, the couple finally succeeded in being married yesterday at Metropolis, Ills.

The democratic convention down at Louisville is getting hotter the longer it is session. It has grown so hot that some of the fair minded delegates have gone home to fan themselves and to "wash their hands of the whole matter."

How about this. Jerry Simpson says a party "just as well discuss a last year's bird nest as to discuss silver at 16 to 1 this year." Jerry understands that the people of Kansas can't be hoodwinked again. Under the McKinley administration they have been paying off their mortgages.

GRAVEL road contractors say that it is difficult to get teams to haul gravel now and many are predicting that the season will go by and a number of roads contracted for in Jackson county will be incomplete when winter comes. Others say that too many contracts have been turned over finally to one man and that he has more than enough contracts on his hands. They anticipate that he will ask for more time and that more time will be granted.

A Narrow Escape.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in finally terminated in Consumption. Four Doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Cough and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles of it. It has cured me, and Thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at W. F. Peters Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00 Guaranteed or price refunded.

A COLD, STONY GAZE.

HCW EMMA JUCH FROZE AN INDISCREET REPORTER.

An Interview in Which the Sympathetic Newspaper Man Got an Invitation to Retire and the Mendacious One Got the Story.

I never heard the critics accuse Emma Juch of lacking sympathy or fire in her art, but there must be scores of interviewers in this country ready to swear that she was reared on lemon ice. Upon occasions Mma. Juch appeared the personification of joyousness, the very goddess of mirth, but these occur usually when guarantees look bona fide and when there happens to be no other lady soloist on the bill.

Unluckily I encountered the famous songstress at a time when she had lost $500 by the rascality, as she expressed it, of a St. Paul manager; also, as it happened, Mlle. Clementine de Vere was on the programme, strong in her possession of a fresh young voice that thrilled audiences in aria or ballad and won applause of the spontaneous sort that critics call ovation. Mma. Juch received the applause, but not the ovation, and, per consequence, was unhappy.

Hearing that the fair warbler had sustained a financial reverse, the editor of the Minneapolis Journal naturally wanted to know all about it for publication, and I happened to be detailed for the interview. Mma. Juch was at the West hotel. I sent up my card, and despite the somewhat unseasonable hour—it was scarcely half past 10 in the morning—received an invitation to visit the prima donna.

Just as I was about to enter the elevator a reporter for another afternoon newspaper stepped up. He was a rather new man, an excellent fellow, but, as it seemed to me, somewhat lacking in finesse.

"I'm going up to see Emma," he said. "Where are you going?"

"Same errand," I replied. "We'd better tackle her one at a time, hadn't we?"

"Lord, no!" he responded. "We'll both go in at once. You do the talking, and I'll take notes."

The plan didn't suit me very well, but there seemed no help for it. As we entered the apartment, Mma. Juch rose from her lounging chair and took a step forward. She was attired in some sort of loose, white morning gown, with a dash of color here and there that made the thing look as if it cost $1,000. My companion gasped and subsided on a horsehair settee near the door.

Mma. Juch appeared majestic, statuesque, magnificent, if you will, but cold—very cold. She bade me be seated in a refrigerated tone and asked to what she was indebted for the honor, etc. Heaven defend me from the notable who opens an interview that way!

A queer noise reached me from the direction of the settee, and I supposed the other fellow was swinging his arms to keep warm, but I dared not look around.

In as few words as possible I explained the object of the call, threw in a few mild remarks indicative of my belief that the St. Paul manager was a soulless scoundrel, who ought to be lynched, and then I waited.

It is entirely unnecessary to recapitulate the interview. Mma. Juch went over the conditions of her contract and described the treatment to which she had been subjected with some little approach to warmth of expression. She really seemed to be thawing when that unregenerate wretch over on the horsehair settee chipped in. The singer's recital of her financial woes had excited his ire against the man who had defrauded her, and he blurted out, referring to the recreant manager:

"He's a big stiff; that's what he is—a big stiff!"

I shall never forget the expression of acute nausea that enshrouded the usually immobile countenance of the great artiste as she turned, with a cold, stony gaze—a gaze that would freeze liquid air—in the direction of the voice and carefully focussed the other man with her lognette. I saw the other man shrink fearfully. He looked just about a tight fit for a bantam's egg when the lognette landed.

"Good gracious!" said Mma. Juch in a pained way. "Do you—er—know that person?"

"Never saw him before in my life," I replied. It was a mean thing to do, but the paper wanted an interview, and I hadn't half finished.

"Would you—er—mind leaving the room," said lovely Emma, addressing the other fellow. "Perhaps a detective sort of a person, don't you think?" she added as the other fellow escaped.

I endorsed the opinion and went on with the interview, which lasted another 15 minutes. Then I bowed myself out and hunted the other man, intending to place him, but he wouldn't speak to me and hadn't since. That chap doesn't appreciate the exigencies of the profession.—Minneapolis Journal.

Five hundred and forty-four tickets were sold here for the Indian Springs excursion today. Others joined the excursionists at Cortland, Surprise and other stations west. The train had on seven coaches when it left here and they were all well filled.

The excursion was conceived by the Methodist Sunday school which had the cooperation of other schools of the city, and thus a larger number were at once interested and helped to make it a success. The rates made by the Southern Indiana were very reasonable and of course had much to do towards swelling the crowd.

The day is ideal for such an excursion and will be greatly enjoyed by this crowd of Seymour people at beautiful Indian Springs.

Portable Pantry Notes Not Good.

The suit of the Brownstown State Bank against Halleck Jones to enforce payment of one of the famous Portable Pantry notes of $300 was concluded at Salem Monday after about a three day's trial. The result was in favor of the defendant, Mr. Jones. The finding was that the notes were given for a patent right contrary to law and therefore are not collectable. The evidence went to show, also, that the bank before purchasing these notes had knowledge of the fact that they were given for a patent right, and that the president of the bank at that time had negotiated for some territory himself in which to sell this portable Pantry.

There are two other parties besides Mr. Jones, we are informed, who have refused to pay these notes and, of course, are gratified over the result of this suit. All the others came in and made settlement, realizing fully that they had been swindled.

It will be remembered that the REPUBLICAN first intimated that the Portable Pantry scheme was taking more money out of the county than the purchasers would be able to make on their investment and that we were criticized right sharply for casting reflections. We have never doubted the correctness of our first impressions.
